We want your child and their friends to have the best possible time at their party. For that to happen it's good if you are aware of the following:

The lead party practitioner will conduct the party in costume. The assistant, if required, will not be in costume. Please invite all the children to come dressed in the party theme costume. Speak to the office for suggestions. Adults are welcome to dress up also!

Theatrebugs Party Practitioners are solely entertainers for this event and the client is responsible for the well being of the children attending the party.

The client must provide the correct space in which to carry out our work to best effect, we need a safe space suitable in size for the number of children invited. Remember there will be movement and games.

The party practitioner will conduct the party from the start time agreed to the finish time agreed, no earlier or later.

We will need prior advice on the exact number of children attending to aid our party preparation. This may alter the number of party practitioners needed and party bags.

Theatrebugs parties are specifically designed to cater for the age of the birthday child; therefore, while younger and older siblings and friends are welcome to join in the party will not be aimed at their ages. In some of our parties we use minimal face paints. Please advise us if any parent has an objection to having their child's face painted. Face paints are not normally used in Happily Ever After Parties.

We strongly advise that only the birthday child's parent(s)/guardian stays to watch the party and that parents of birthday guests do not remain in the party room. The client is required to inform the guest's parents that they must not wait in the party room.

The main party practitioner will arrive approx 20 mins prior to the commencement of your party. The party assistant (if required) will arrive approx 10 mins before.

Full payment in advance is required to reserve your party slot. If you are unsure of the amount of children that will attend please send the minimum amount to reserve the place and send the balance once numbers are confirmed.

Please note: Full payment must be received before the party. Payment is non refundable.
